Sir,

Sub : Pension - Commutation.
Ref : Memorandum No.650C2 Pen-2 dated 27-1-45.

With reference to the Government Memorandum quoted above (received yesterday evening) directing me to appear for re-examination Before the Standing Medical Board on the 13th Feb. 1945, I beg to submit the following for kind consideration.

I submit that 11th Feb. is Mahasivaratri day. It is a full fasting day for me. I have to perform Siva Pooja during the 4 quarters of the night waking up the whole night. The next day is Amavasi and Sankramanam. I have to perform Ceremony (Hiranya Sraddham) and Pitur Tharpanam after midday (after 1 P.M.) and then take my food along with Purohit brahmin. I therefore submit that I am unable to undertake the long Railway Journey on that day so as to reach Madras on the 13th. Furtner I require at least 4 days rest after the sleepless fasting day and at least a day's rest after arrival at Madras by the most troublesome sleepless Railway Journey I therefore humbly request, that any date after the 14th February may be kindly fixed allowing me at least 8 days time. Or 9.2.45 so that I may return here on 10.2.45 for Sivaratri Pooja.

In this connection I humbly beg to submit that especially since the date of my retirement in 1938 I have been strictly observing my family orthodox religious principles, as a vow, not to take or take food in any hotel or in any stranger or friend's house; nor do I take food or tiffin without finishing my daily Pooja. With a view to avoid the troublesome Railway journey, especially in Bombay Mail and the extreme difficulty of halting at Madras even for a few days (as I cannot carry even half a seer of rice and cannot find a room place in Madras to take my food) I applied for commutation for a lower sum in order that I might be examined by the District Medical Officer at Bellary only. Now I have been directed to undergo the ordeal of appearing the Medical Board at Madras after undergoing the extreme troubles quoted above (for a man of my advanced age) I request that I may be permitted to commute a bigger sum, viz. Rs.59/- of my pension. I enclose herewith a revised application in the prescribed form
